

Tuckahoe Volunteer Rescue Squad Membership Application Process

Joining Tuckahoe Volunteer Rescue Squad is easy! All you need to do is complete these few simple steps of the Application Process. Keep this page for your reference and as a checklist.

1. Volunteer Membership Application – Please complete the application included in this information packet.
2. Reference Forms – Please distribute the Reference Forms, included in this packet to the References you listed on your Volunteer Membership Application.
3. Criminal History Record Investigation – Contact the Chairman of the Membership Committee to provide essential information. Tuckahoe Volunteer Rescue Squad will send a request to the Virginia State Police for a copy of your background check. If you are under 18, this is not necessary.
4. DMV Record – The membership chairman will ask for a copy of your driving record. Please also attach a copy of your license.
5. EMS Certifications - Please submit copies of any EMS certifications you presently hold with your application. Also, please submit a copy of your CPR certification.
6. Please note that other documents may be required. Contact the Chairman of the Membership Committee for additional information.

Please deliver or send this application and all requested items to:
